TUTORIAL

The Swift-compatible API tutorials follow a simple container-based object lifecycle. The first step requires you to setup a connection between your client and the RADOS Gateway server. Then, you may follow a natural container and object lifecycle, including adding and retrieving object metadata. See example code for the following languages:

- Java
- Python
- Ruby